THE COLLECTIVE

Monsoon Edition 03

This quarter, the rains arrived — and with them came a renewed rhythm. From scaling up production to stretching into wellness, every corner of Sujan has been moving, growing, evolving. This Monsoon Edition is a snapshot of our collective grit and spirit: steady, bold, and always ready for more.

Here's to the work, the weather, and the drive that keeps us moving.

RDSO VISIT TO VASAI

Operational Excellence in Focus

On June 11th, we welcomed a team from RDSO Lucknow to Vasai for a Capacity Assessment. The big highlight? Our annual capacity has grown from 24,000 to 2,10,000 units. This visit marked not just validation, but recognition of how far we've come in engineering capability, compliance, and scale. It's a powerful testament to our teams who've turned ambition into achievement.

STRATEGIC WINS SECURED

New Connections Made

We are pleased to announce that we have received a Purchase Order by Kharagpur Metal for the supply of Draft Gear Pads. This engagement reflects our continued focus on specialized product verticals and client diversification in the railway sector.

INTERNATIONAL YOGA DAY

Workplace Wellbeing in Action

On June 21st, Sujan teams across locations came together to observe International Yoga Day with guided sessions focused on balance, posture, and breathwork. This initiative reaffirmed our belief that a resilient workforce is built on physical and mental wellbeing. Wellness remains a central pillar of our employee engagement strategy, and we thank all participants for their enthusiastic involvement.

RNR HIGHLIGHTS

Recognising Consistent Contribution

This month, team Mega held an internal R&R ceremony that acknowledged team members whose daily efforts have created tangible value across production, operations, quality assurance, and support functions.

Mr. Shanmuga Sigamani
Mr. Balamurugan
Mrs. Priyanka

Their contributions represent the very foundation of our reliability. Here's to you and your everyday hustle!

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

Celebrating our Everyday Stars

Known for her wit and warmth, Aarti Panchal brings the spirit of Tenali Raman to work every day - clever, cheerful, and always ready to boost morale. She leads with empathy, easily connecting with people and resolving challenges with a calm confidence.

Her ideal weekend reset includes spending time with her daughter, playing games, going out, or watching a good movie. If she could instantly master one skill, it would be reading unspoken emotions and helping people through what they feel but can't always say. For Aarti, the perfect lunch break is all about her Sujan lunch gang - a table full of good food, endless conversation, and strong bonds. "We're all different," she says, "but we stick together like Fevicol."
